

Equal Adventure Lecture 2010

Jack looks down his first grade 2 rapid since the road accident, his instructor raises the paddle in the air.

“Can I do this?”

You want to include Susan so she can climb with the rest of the class and not exclude her due to her disability.

“As a coach, can I do it?”

Can you get all of your students out of the classroom and into the outdoors?

Can all of your school pupils or organisation members go on an expedition, in the UK or in far-flung destinations, with all the individuals in your charge?

You Can!

Equal Adventure Lecture 2010

Wednesday 27th January

www.equaladventure.org/ealecture2010.htm

For those responsible for outdoor learning and adventure activities, EA invites you to an evening of inspirational lectures at the Royal Geographical Society (with IBG). Learn from the leading adventurers, athletes, coaches and representatives from schools and organisations across the UK.

The EA Lecture will give you a chance to gain up-to-date knowledge and progressive insights into making adventure activities and learning in the outdoors possible with all of your students regardless of disability.

Chaired by: Dame Tanni Grey Thompson & Felicity Aston, with a cast of inspirational and informative speakers. See the web for more details.
